Fall programming schedule released soon

Summer programming may be over at GPL, but that means our library worker bees are busy planning a fun fall schedule full of activities that will keep you entertained all the way up to the holiday season!

On the docket this fall are many of our regular favorites like Crochet Club and Classic Movie Matinees in addition to informative speakers and creative projects. We've even got a Family Fun Night planned for kids of all ages!

As for our Children's Programming, it will return at the regular times of 11 a.m. on Tuesdays and Wednesdays for Storytime, and 4:30 p.m. on the first Thursday of each month for Lego Club.

For more details on what's coming next at GPL, be sure to check out next month's edition of the Carnegie Chronicle. If you're too excited to wait until then, keep an eye on our social media pages as well as our website, greenville-publiclibrary.org for dates and times. We'll also be spreading the word through local news outlets like the Daily Advocate, Early Bird, County News Online, My County Link, and many more!

The library will be closed on Friday, August 22 for our annual Staff Appreciation celebration

We will also be closed for a day or two as new carpeting is installed on the first floor. Keep an eye on our website and social media for announcements about these dates.

Donated books now available for checkout

Greenville Public Library is now home to two new books written by authors with Darke County ties.

Twisted by Terry Cavanaugh is “the story of twin sisters who must find out the murderer of their retired pastor father before a family is convicted of the crime.” Cavanaugh, formerly of Ithaca, now resides in Jackson, Ohio, where he is the pastor at Wesley Cove Church.

After the Flash: A Modern Guide to Nuclear Survival by Mark A. Rush is “an indispensable survival guide for anyone preparing for the unimaginable – navigating the aftermath of a nuclear war. Written by a seasoned nuclear professional, this comprehensive manual offers clear, step-by-step strategies for surviving the critical first hours and days following a nuclear detonation.” Rush is a former resident of Greenville that now lives in Yellow Spring, West Virginia.

Both books are now available for checkout. To place a hold, go to our website, greenville-publiclibrary.org and browse our collection for the title, or call the library at (937) 548-3915.

The Friends of the Library are not accepting book
donations at this time

In the mean time, check out the Friends of the Library Book Sale on the second floor in the Computer Lab

Beauty abounds at Greenville Public Library

A big thanks goes out to Richard Halley for keeping the flowerbeds around GPL looking bright and beautiful all year round! Richard works long, hard hours and it shines through in the plants he loving cultivates and transplants from season to season.
