Learn to travel like a pro on July 8th

Traveling is always a rewarding endeavor, but deciding when, where, and how to get to your desired destination can be a pain.

Worry no more by getting the inside track on trip planning from a pro! On Tuesday, July 8, GPL's own Leigh Fletcher will be sharing her hard-earned travel knowledge with us at 10 a.m.

Leigh has been planning all kinds of trips as co-owner of Friends on Board, which specializes in group motor coach travel. Whether you're looking to take a day trip or a week-long excursion, Leigh's tips and tricks of the trade can make planning your dream vacation a breeze.

From choosing a location to visit, your mode of transportation, travel companions, and much, much more, Leigh will help shed light on the pros and cons of self-planning versus group tours. Whether you're a seasoned veteran or a novice planning your first real vacation, you won't want to miss this opp-portunity to get the scoop on all things travel.

For more information on this program, call the library at the number listed below. For more on Leigh and Friends on Board, visit their website at yourfriendsonboard.com.

July movies feature outdoor adventures

Beat the heat this summer and bring your adventures indoors with GPL's July Movie Matinees!

On Thursday, July 17 at 1 p.m., we'll be showing the 1988 (almost) cult classic, The Great Outdoors. This family comedy features the talents of the late John Candy and Dan Aykroyd as brothers-in-law with very different approaches to a relaxing fishing weekend. This film is rated PG with a run time of 1 hour 31 minutes. Patrons are invited to bring their favorite movie snacks and drinks to this free event. A jacket or sweater is recommended for anyone who finds themselves easily chilled.

The following week on July 24, we'll be hosting a movie just for teens. Beginning at 1 p.m., we'll be showing the 2022 action adventure, Uncharted, starring Tom Holland and Mark Wahlberg. This movie is rated PG-13 with a run time of 1 hour 56 minutes. Snacks will be provided.

As always, movies at GPL are free!

The Library will be closing at noon on Friday, July 11 for Summer Reading still going strong!

The Summer Reading Program may be almost halfway over, but it's never too late to get started!

Kids and adults alike have more than enough time to enter to win our wide variety of prizes... just for reading! Ages 18 and under can get started by signing up at the Circulation Desk, while adults can just grab a slip for every book, ebook, audiobook, or magazine they read and put it in the prize drawing of their choice. All entry slips must be received no later than Saturday, July 26 in order to win.

So many programs, so little time...

If you haven't been to our children's programs this summer, you've missed out on a whole lot of fun! There's still plenty of great programs yet to come, so make sure you get here soon!

For a full list of our summer events, check out the calendar on our website, greenville-publiclibrary.org or our Events page on Facebook.

Join one of our cool monthly clubs this summer!

Looking for something new and fun to try this summer? Look no further than GPL!

We offer monthly club meetings for readers and anyone interested in the fiber arts, and as with all of our programs, it's completely free!

Our Bring Your Own Book Club

meets on the third Thursday of each month, with our upcoming event at 5:30 p.m. on July 17. Ages 14 and up are welcome, but we ask that anyone attending gets picked up no later than 6:30. Books of all sizes and genres are welcome! We don't discuss a set book each month, so just bring what you're reading and get ready to share!

Our Crochet Club is held on the fourth Tuesday of each month, with July's falling on the 22nd from noon to 2 p.m. Anyone of any skill level is welcome to attend. We also welcome knitters and anyone else who creates using yarn. Patrons are encouraged to bring a lunch or a snack to enjoy while working. We hope to see you there!
