Firetruck gets a new home

The library is known for many things, but if you ask a child, "What is your favorite thing about the library?" you might get the answer, "The firetruck!"

With that in mind, GPL's entry area near the Circulation Desk was recently rearranged to include the much-loved firetruck.

For those unfamiliar with this important piece of GPL memorabilia, the firetruck has been a part of our library since 1998 when it was built and donated by local firefighters. It includes two child-sized bench seats and four shelves the perfect size for displaying children's books.

The firetruck isn't the only thing that's moved in the Children's area. New books are now located just inside the main entrance next to the firetruck, taking the place of the emergent readers.

The emergent readers have been relocated to the Children's area where the biographies were once shelved, and the biography section is near the children's computers where the new books were formerly housed.

Children's magazines can now be found in the windows around the room, near the chapter books.

Local author donates book to YA Department

Return of the Seraph is a science fiction thriller set hundreds of years in the future in a world where humans have taken control of a planet once inhabited by a race called the seraph. Recommended for fans of the sci-fi and dystopian genres, it is now available for checkout!

Greenville Art Guild holds Urban Sketching event on the lawn

GPL was happy to collaborate with the Greenville Art Guild on Saturday, September 11 for their Urban Sketching event. It was a great success and well attended by both adults and high schoolers in our community.

Festive displays abound at GPL this fall

October is known for many things. Fall. Halloween. Monarch butterflies. And here at GPL, we wanted to celebrate all of those things!

This month, we have three beautiful displays for patrons to enjoy. One features books on immigration and is adorned with fluttering Monarch butterflies, while a suspense and thriller display showcases reads that will make your heart pound. Last but not least, we have a display that includes staff recommended books from our collections. Stop by soon and check them out!

New signs to help simplify your library experience

At Greenville Public Library, we are always striving to come up with new and creative ways to help patrons find what they are looking for. In an effort to make finding shelved materials easier to locate, we've posted new, easier-to-read signs throughout the stacks.

We've updated the endstack signs throughout the library, making it easier to search for a particular author or book. We've also added some topical guide signs to assist patrons in their searches. Nonfiction "tough topics" now adorn the end of the aisles upstairs, and signs to help children and parents find their favorite book characters will be up soon.

Many thanks to Amanda for using her graphic design talents to create beautiful new signage!
