

Many thanks to local grant donors

By Susi Halley
Library Director

We at Greenville Public Library wish to express our sincere gratitude for the generous support we continue to receive from the community and from our local grants. Without the help from these organizations, we would not be able to accomplish all we do.

In the past two years alone, we have had eleven antique oak tables refinished by Denny's Furniture (Darke County Foundation); new front doors manufactured and installed by Buck Run Doors (all other grants), and the (story continues on pg 2)

Top left: Christy Praker, Director Darke County Foundation, Amanda Olson, Library Marketing, and Susi Halley, Library Director. Top right: Andrea Jordan, Darke County Endowment for the Arts Board, and Deb Cameron, Library Reference Supervisor and Adult Programming. Middle left: Nathan Hosek, Rotary of Greenville Board, and Rachel Brock, Library Genealogy and Historic Preservation. Middle right: Dianna Wagner, Harry Stephens Memorial Trust President, and Susi Halley, Library Director. Bottom right: Craig Stickel, Friends of the Library Treasurer, and Joanna Brown, Library Circulation Supervisor and Children's Specialist. Not pictured: Grants also received from Darke Rural Electric Trust, Lydia Schaurer Memorial Trust, and private donors.

Sue Bowman and team to host downsizing program

On Thursday, April 6, Greenville Public Library welcomes Sue Bowman and her Howard Hanna Real Estate team for the program, The Benefits of Downsizing from 1 to 2 p.m.

Sue and her team will offer lots of valuable information to help you plan the next stage of your life. Whether you're selling a farm, downsizing to a smaller home, or looking for a place with less maintenance, this program has something for everyone. Tips on condo, multigenerational, or assisted and independent living will also be covered.

This informational session will be held in the third floor conference room. This is a free event, and registration is not required. Coffee and cookies will be provided.

Sue Bowman,
Howard Hanna Real Estate Services

For more information on this program, contact the library at (937) 548-3915 or at our website, greenville-publiclibrary.org.

We hope to see you there!

Continued from front

Henry St. Clair stained glass window refurbished by Willet-Hauser (Endowment for the Arts and others).

The Friends of the Library have donated to all of these projects, and they have supported other Library needs including the Family Fun Days' entertainment every summer. Our goal this year is to raise funds for a two-sided digital sign for the front lawn which will advertise not only Library events and news but that of other nonprofits. Thank you again to all our donors!

MOVIE
 MATINEE
 THURSDAY,
 APRIL 20
 1 P.M.

Winter Read winners announced

It's official: The 2023 Winter Reading Challenge was an overwhelming success!

During the nearly two month long event, over 2500 entries were turned in. Patrons loved being able to choose their prize package so much that we've already decided to bring the process back for our upcoming 2023 Adult Summer Reading Program!

Our lucky winners were: (top left) Ayla Hosek, Mad Scientist; (top right) Elizabeth Seman, Get Grilling; (middle left) Brenda Stump, Healthy Living; (middle right) Enoch Evans, Family Game Night; (bottom left) Kelly Baker, Gardening Galore; and (bottom right) Sharon Schlechty, Fill Your Cup.

The library would like to congratulate all of our winners and offer a huge thanks to all of our patrons who participated for making this event so much fun! We hope you'll join us for the Summer Reading Program beginning in June!

Happy Easter!

The Library will be closed on April 7 in observance of Good Friday.

BRC residents treated to special tour

A lucky group of BRC residents were treated to a special tour of our historic library led by our very own Elois Hatfield. Elois has worked at GPL for over 20 years and did a wonderful job sharing her wide variety of library knowledge!

Greenville Public Library
520 Sycamore Street
Greenville, Ohio 45331